PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

Docket No. 2001-17

March 13, 2001

MAINE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION
Numbering Resource Reclamation
Proceedings

ORDER

WELCH, Chairman; NUGENT and DIAMOND, Commissioners

---

On February 13, 2001, Log-On America, Inc. (LOA) informed the Commission that it no longer required the numbering resources issued to it in Maine and requested that the Commission initiate reclamation proceedings.

We have reviewed LOA's filing and agree that the resources should be reclaimed. At this time, LOA has blocks in five rate centers in Maine. Pursuant to authority delegated from the Federal Communication Commission<sup>1</sup>, we direct the pooling administrator to reclaim all of LOA's blocks in the 207 NPA.

In addition, we have learned that none of the blocks LOA donated to the pool has been assigned to other carriers. Thus, it is possible for the pooling administrator to "re-assemble" each of the full NXXs originally assigned to LOA. Because the blocks LOA donated are not needed to meet current pooling demands, we believe it best to reassemble the full codes and have NANPA reclaim them. Accordingly, pursuant to our delegated authority, we direct NANPA to reclaim the full NXXs previously assigned to LOA (420, 272, 579, 659, and 742).

Dated at Augusta, Maine, this 13th day of March, 2001.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS TO REVIEW OR APPEAL

5 M.R.S.A. § 9061 requires the Public Utilities Commission to give each party to an adjudicatory proceeding written notice of the party's rights to review or appeal of its decision made at the conclusion of the adjudicatory proceeding. The methods of review or appeal of PUC decisions at the conclusion of an adjudicatory proceeding are as follows:

1. Reconsideration of the Commission's Order may be requested under Section 1004 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (65-407 C.M.R.110) within 20 days of the date of the Order by filing a petition with the Commission stating the grounds upon which reconsideration is sought.
2. Appeal of a final decision of the Commission may be taken to the Law Court by filing, within 30 days of the date of the Order, a Notice of Appeal with the Administrative Director of the Commission, pursuant to 35-A M.R.S.A. § 1320(1)-(4) and the Maine Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 73, et seq.
3. Additional court review of constitutional issues or issues involving the justness or reasonableness of rates may be had by the filing of an appeal with the Law Court, pursuant to 35-A M.R.S.A. § 1320(5).

Note: The attachment of this Notice to a document does not indicate the Commission's view that the particular document may be subject to review or appeal. Similarly, the failure of the Commission to attach a copy of this Notice to a document does not indicate the Commission's view that the document is not subject to review or appeal.
